REDI at CSU invites you to join us for the Newest RAPID Response Live Report

Dr. Becca Jablonski, REDI Associate and REDI co-Director Dawn Thilmany will present applied research and policy briefs developed as part of CSU's Task Force on Colorado Food Supply. They will also discuss the most current updates on how economic relief as well as state and federal programs will be made available to stakeholders throughout the Colorado agricultural sector and food supply chain. Q and A to follow.
