

PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION FOR GOLD STAR SPOUSES

OVERVIEW

In 2022, Colorado voters approved Amendment E to section 3.5 of article X of the Colorado Constitution. The amendment and subsequent legislation expanded the senior citizen and disabled veteran property tax exemption to include "Gold Star Spouses."

For Gold Star Spouses who qualify 50 % of the first $200,000 of actual value of their primary residence is exempted. The state will reimburse the county treasurer for the lost revenue. Owners of multiple residences may only designate one property as their primary residence.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Amendment E expands the current homestead exemption to reduce the property taxes paid by a homeowner who is the surviving spouse of either a military service member who died in the line of duty or a veteran whose death resulted from a service-related injury or disease.

The surviving spouse must be qualified under Federal Law and by the state Department of Military and Veteran affairs.

The surviving spouse must provide a complete packet with the Gold Star Spouse Application, documentation that the service members' death was the result of service-related injury or disease, and documentation that the death occurred on active duty or following separation from the military. Documentation can be the VA Benefits Summary letter or a letter from the Department of Defense.

The surviving spouse must not have remarried in order to be eligible.

OWNERSHIP AND OCCUPANCY REQUIREMENTS

Ownership

The Gold Star Spouse must own the property and must have been an owner of record since January 1 of the current year. The ownership can be limited to an individual, joint, or life estate interest.

Occupancy

The Gold Star Spouse must occupy the property as his or her primary residence and must have done so since January 1 – of the application year. A primary residence is the place at which a person's habitation is fixed and to which that person, when absent, has the intention of returning. A person can have only one primary residence at any time. If the Gold Star Spouse is registered to vote, the address used for voter registration is considered the Gold Star Spouse's primary residence. If the Gold Star Spouse is not registered to vote, the address listed on automobile registrations, income tax returns, or other legal documents may be considered as evidence of the Gold Star Spouse's place of primary residency.

Exceptions to the Occupancy and Ownership Requirements.

1) Ownership was transferred to or purchased by a trust, corporate partnership or other entity solely for estate planning purposes; 2) the qualifying applicant was or is confined to a nursing home, hospital or assisted living facility; 3) the prior residence was condemned in an eminent domain proceeding by a governmental entity; or 4) the prior residence was destroyed or otherwise rendered uninhabitable by a natural disaster.

PROPERTY REQUIREMENTS

Residential Property

The property must be classified by the county assessor as residential.

Multiple Dwelling Units

If the Gold Star Spouse owns a multiple dwelling unit property, exemption will only be granted to the unit occupied by the Gold Star Spouse as his or her primary residence.

MAKING APPLICATION:

Complete the attached application and mail or deliver it to the Colorado Department of Military and Veterans Affairs, Division of Veterans Affairs (Division), at the address listed on the application. Completed applications must be postmarked or delivered no later than July 1 of the year for which the exemption is requested. To ensure that the application is timely filed, all information requested on the application (including a copy of your "VA Benefit Summary Letter" or your letter from the Department of Defense), must be submitted by July 1.

The Division of Veteran Affairs will make a determination on your status as a "Gold Star Spouse" and mail you a determination. If approved, the Division will forward your approved application to your county assessor for further review.

The county assessor will determine whether the property requirements are met. If they are, the assessor will place the exemption on your property and it will remain in place for future years until a change in the status of your property requires that the exemption be removed.

If one or more of the property requirements are not met the assessor will mail you a letter explaining the reason(s) for denial and provide you with instructions for appealing the assessor's decision to the county board of equalization. Denials issued by the Division on an applicant's status as a "Gold Star Spouse" cannot be appealed to the county board of equalization.

Under no circumstances shall an exemption be allowed for property taxes assessed during any tax year prior to the year in which he Gold Star Spouse first files an exemption application. No more than one exemption per tax year shall be allowed for a residential property, even if one or more of the owner occupiers qualify for both the senior exemption and the disabled veteran exemption.

If an individual or married couple applies for either or both the senior and disabled veteran exemptions on more than one property, the exemptions will be denied on each property.

Applications can be obtained from the Division's web site at: <https://vets.colorado.gov>
